

IKEBANA

A workshop facilitated by Vincent Roumagnac

ENG

"This summer in Helsinki on the occasion of three Sunday afternoons, I offer three-hour Ikebana workshops for beginners, for 1-3 participants at a time. During the three hours, we go through a short historical and technical introduction to the Seika/Shōka style, which has been taught to me in Japan by Ikebana master over the past ten years. After the introduction, I guide and help the participants in the realization of an arrangement based on the introductory historical and technical data, and the flower material at hand, which is provided for the workshop. Having grown up in a family of professional gardeners and florists, I have developed knowledge of floral techniques while working in my youth in the family-run company. I have continuously practiced Ikebana as an advanced non-professional for ten years, after studying it in Tokyo in 2008. I will be happy to share the Ikebana-experience through a soft, easy, playful session with participants of the workshop."
